

Sector : Shipping industry news - WEEK 23

1st mainland-made cargo ship for Taiwan launches

Friday 20:09

SHANGHAI, June 10 (Xinhua) -- The first cargo ship made in the mainland for Taiwan left Shanghai Friday.
The first cargo ship made in the mainland for Taiwan left Shanghai Friday.

Aker Kvaerner wins 370 mln nkr drilling equipment order from Maersk Contractors

Friday 13:47

OSLO (AFX) - Aker Kvaerner ASA said it has won a contract from AP Moeller-Maersk AS's Maersk Contractors unit for the delivery of drilling equipment to four jack up rigs to be made at the Keppel Fels shipyard in Singapore.

An analysis for LEVEL 3 customers has been issued - see sample attached

Shanghai begins work on 'world's largest shipyard'

Yesterday 20:31

Shanghai begins work on 'world's largest shipyard' SHANGHAI, China (AP) - Construction has begun on what China says will eventually be the world's biggest shipyard, part of the country's plan for taking a dominant role in the industry

AP Moeller-Maersk formally bids for P&O Nedlloyd, offers 57 eur cash per share

Friday 16:30

COPENHAGEN (AFX) - AP Moeller-Maersk AS said it has made a conditional public offer for the shares in Royal P&O Nedlloyd NV, offering a cash payment of 57 eur per share, corresponding to a total purchase price of 2.3 bln eur.